FCC WIRELINE COMPETITION BUREAU ANNOUNCES PERSONNEL ACTION

Aaron Goldschmidt Named Assistant Division Chief of the Pricing Policy Division

Washington, DC – Today, Dorothy Attwood, Bureau Chief of the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) Wireline Competition Bureau, made the following personnel announcement.

Aaron Goldschmidt has been named Assistant Division Chief of the Pricing Policy Division (formerly the Competitive Pricing Division) of the Wireline Competition Bureau. Mr. Goldschmidt joined the division in April 1996. Mr. Goldschmidt was the team leader on the CALLS proceeding, and has also worked on various components of the access charge reform proceeding, as well as the pricing issues of the Kansas/Oklahoma and the Pennsylvania section 271 Orders. Prior to joining the division, he worked in the Auctions Division of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. He started at the FCC in November 1993 as an attorney in the Cable Services Division of the Mass Media Bureau.

Before joining the FCC, Mr. Goldschmidt clerked for Chief Justice Rosemary Barkett at the Florida Supreme Court. He received a B.A. in Mathematics from Cornell University and a J.D. with honors from Florida State University.
